Herrnbrod & Ständecke – a house with a long tradition

The restaurant Herrnbrod was founded in 1882 by the cooper Konrad Herrnbrod and his wife Margaret. Their first born son Phillip led from 1916 the typical apple wine pub, until his daughter Margaret and her husband Erich Ständecke took over the leadership of the restaurant from her parents in 1952. In the same year Herrnbrod & Ständecke had established the widely known butcher shop, famous for its fine sausages and meat products, which today is under the guidance of the master butcher Friedrich Ständecke. All meat products, sausages and cold cuts served and used in the restaurant come from our own production and thus meet the highest requirements in terms of quality and freshness. The preparation of the traditional "Herrnbrod-dishes" is led by daughter Luise Derlich as head chef.

Our famous apple wine, internationally more known as cider, is served originally from our own orchards and own production. The taste of the apple wine varies slightly from year to year due to weather conditions and the variety of different apple quantities harvested from our gardens. We grow and proceed rather rare and forgotten apple varieties like Goldrenette, Ontario, Russet Red, Goldparmäne, Speierling, Hauxapfel or yellow precious. We produce out of that base a tangy and refreshing drink with a lot of character and low alcohol content. Locals add for refreshment a splash of sparkling mineral water or lemonade. The cider, or as the local say "Äpplewoi" is, by the way, best suited for diabetics: 5 liters of cider must only be counted as a single bread unit. In 1986, the old, very cramped restaurant, which was housed in a half-timbered building was replaced by the present building. Since then the traditional restaurant is located in the first floor of the hotel and local as well as international guests enjoy what Herrnbrod and Ständecke is well known for far beyond the city limits of Sprendlingen:

A family-run apple wine restaurant with heart and tradition.
